Fill your vacancies

These events are organised by the publishers of the Skills4Nurses, Scottish and Irish Nurse magazines. More healthcare professionals turn to these publications for jobs, products and training opportunities than any other in Scotland and Ireland. There is no better way for such professionals to learn about your organisation than meeting you face to face.

SKILLS4NURSES

Skills for Nurses are pleased to announce the latest Healthcare Exhibitions which will be held in Glasgow and Dublin. Previous events have helped many NHS, international recruiters and employers in the private sector to fill posts and the latest events promise to do even better. As with all our events we have a full range of seminars and workshops featuring prominent speakers and celebrities.

Exhibiting at Skills for Nurses will bring you face-to-face with enthusiastic healthcare professionals of all grades and disciplines, and raise your profile across the whole healthcare community.

Back by popular demand the Skills4Nurses Expos, Scotland and Irelands only exhibitions dedicated to the nursing and healthcare professional. Our events are ideal for recruitment or to promote a service or training opportunity.

Since 1995, our nursing Expo's, have attracted many of worlds top hospitals, and nursing employers to the UK to meet Healthcare Professionals dedicated to Nursing

By attending, you will be joining a prestigious list of astute Hospital Recruiters, Product Companies & Exhibitors who regularly attend our events looking to innovatively recruit the talent they require.

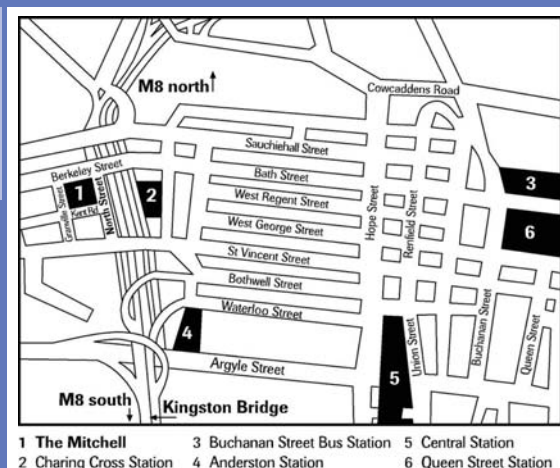

Recent recruiters at our expos include Many NHS and Irish Hospitals as well as our regular Australian, New Zealand , Canadian recruiters, and many more.

This year alone over 100,000 skilled and experienced nurses, have visited our website enquiring about our nursing expos, which will lead them to that ideal job.
